

Privacy policy

Please take a moment to read the following Privacy Policy for this website, owned by DO3D Innovations Ltd. (referred as "DO3D"), to learn how we handle personal information provided or collected from global users of our website. Awareness and understanding of our Privacy Policy will allow you to decide how to communicate with us, and will allow us to provide you with better service. By using this website, you consent and agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy.

DO3D will not sell any of the names, email addresses or other personal information in our databases. DO3D collects and will use such personal information provided by you through any contact form on our website or other inquiry made by you, by email, product or service order, registration and/or attendance at any DO3D event, or requested through trade publications, trade shows, and direct contact with DO3D and/or its network of independent resellers, sales agents or any customer service personnel.

DO3D will use the visitors' voluntarily provided name, email and other information to a) subscribe them to DO3D-related newsletters b) occasionally send them direct marketing information.

In general, you can browse this website without providing any personal information. We might use cookies and certain software tools to optimize your website access and use, as well as to collect and analyze session information in order to analyze website traffic, and to better understand the needs of our customers and other visitors.
